Tamm, 25. April 2013 - This year, Marabu supports the FESPA Awards for the fifth time. The competition's international judging panel selects the most innovative screen, digital and textile printing product based on complexity, sharpness and creativity. Printers from all over the world can send in their smart solutions.

The best piece wins € 3,000. All products will be exhibited at the Awards Pavilion during the FESPA 2013 in London from 25th to 29th of June 2013. Marabu invites you to participate. Take your chance and show the world what you can do!

For Marabu, the interest in new ideas was decisive in entering a powerful collaboration with FESPA to organize the competition and to boost its popularity.
