

OVER 40 ARTICLES INCLUDING EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEWS WITH SISECAM, O-I, ASAHI INDIA GLASS, AGI GLASPAC, INTERPANE & PRAGATI

BATCH AND CULLET TREATMENT SYSTEMS FOR THE GLASS INDUSTRY

PEOPLE & POSTS

Derrylin site director named

Paddy O'Doherty.

Paddy O'Doherty has joined Encirc as Site Director for its facility at Derrylin, Northern Ireland. Responsible for the entire Derrylin operation, Mr O'Doherty will work closely with Encirc's senior management team, leading the future investment and development programmes to further optimise efficiency and increase capacity, helping boost profitability and ensuring the business's long-term success. He joins from Coca-Cola Canada's facility in Brampton, Ontario, where he held the position of General Manager.

Schott board appointments

Hermann Ditz, Head of the Electronic Packaging business unit and Dr Heinz Kaiser, Head of the Home Tech Business Unit have been appointed to the Board of Management of Schott AG.

Dr Hans-Joachim Konz, who has been a member of the Board of Management since 2008, will be leaving the company at the end of 2015. He is currently responsible for business units dealing with Flat Glass, Home Tech, Lighting and Imaging, as well as Research and Development and Technical Services.

Design, decoration and innovation promotions

Allied Glass Containers has promoted Michael Hogley to the position of Head of Design and Decoration. He will be responsible for linking both core functions to ensure that Allied continues to support its customers by delivering an enhanced design and decoration service.

Day-to-day operations within the Design Department will continue to be managed by Gary Nicholls and Alan Howlgate will remain responsible for Allied's Decoration facility.

Coinciding with Michael Hogley's appointment, Chris Todd has moved to the position of Innovations Manager. He has been tasked with identifying new innovations, technologies and key strategic partners that will deliver innovative and creative glass packaging.

Senior management changes at Teichmann

Kevin Yung.

Kathleen M Andrews.

A series of senior management changes has been confirmed by USA-based glass engineering and contracting specialist, Henry F Teichmann Inc, including Mark F Piedmonte's promotion to President. Mr Piedmonte has over 33 years' experience in the glass industry, including float, container and fibre. He first joined Teichmann in 2001 as an Electrical Engineer and Manager of Electrical Projects and has served on numerous regional Electrical Industry Boards and Joint Committees. Mr Piedmonte served as Deputy Construction Manager becoming Vice President of Operations two years ago.

Kevin Yung rejoins as Vice President of Operations, with responsibility for Engineering, Purchasing and Construction Departments. He first joined Teichmann in 2003 as a Project Engineer.

for five years before

Kathleen M Andrews has been promoted to Vice President of Finance. having been with Teichmann for over 28 years, serving as Accountant for the company for the last 25 years. Her vast experience will ensure continued strength and stability throughout the transition and growth of the company.

Arch McIntyre remains Chairman of the Board.

Ware handling specialist for Latin America

Lyanne Pérez has joined Dura Temp as a Technical Specialist, Hot Ware Handling Applications, to service the Latin American region. Based in Miami, she is also responsible for providing technical support to customers in the Iberian Peninsula and certain regions of the USA. Ms Pérez joins the team with a Bachelor's Degree in Mechanical Engineering and experience in turbine technologies. She is fluent in Spanish and English.

Glass inks specialist

Markus Rodrigo with Martin Hehl-Heinz.

Markus Rodrigo has taken over as Product Manager Printing Inks for the glass sector at Marabu. Bringing more than 10 years' experience in screen printing, technical sales and process optimisation, he succeeds Martin Hehl-Heinz, who has left the ink manufacturer to become Managing Director R&D Decoration Development at Sahm, Germany.

glasstec 2016 presidency confirmed

Dr Hans-Joachim

Dr Hans-Joachim Konz, Executive Board Member of Schott AG and President of BV Glas has been confirmed as President of glasstec 2016 exhibition. He succeeds Martin Gregor Gutmann, Guild Master of the German Glazing Trade. The exhibition takes place in Düsselforf from 20 to 23 September 2016.

Control systems solutions expert leaves industry

Vertech Research and Development Directorm Jonathan Souillot left the business at the end of September. Having joined the company in 2004, for the past two years Mr Souillot has focused on R&D, managing long-term developments of the SIL system. He helped make SIL a complete solution for glass manufacturers, including a module for the mould shop, data acquisition, Intranet production platform and data extraction solution, working in close partnership with inspection equipment suppliers.

Flat glass packaging system management

Mario Luettecke has been appointed CEO of Glass-wrap GmbH, developer of innovative flat glass packaging systems, based in Germany. Mr Luettecke has more than 18 years of international experience in the construction industry, including eight years with Josef Gartner, a member of the Permasteelisa Group and a large international facade cladding company. The Glas-wrap packaging system was developed to protect flat glass, to simplify transport, handling, warehousing and site storage, as well as enhancing the safety of employees.

DO YOU HAVE A NEW COMPANY APPOINTMENT TO TELL THE WORLD ABOUT? Email news@glassworldwide.co.uk